3. Any person who, not being a band member, resides on the reserve on the date this by-law comes into force may be authorized to remain in residence thereon, permanently or for a term, by a majority vote of electors at a meeting called for that purpose. Any such authority may be subsequently revoked by a majority vote of electors at a meeting called for that purpose.

4. Any band member or other person who has resided on the reserve ceases to be entitled to reside thereon.

(i) when he or she leaves or remains off the reserve with the intention of abandoning the reserve as his or her place of residence, or

(ii) when his or her name is deleted from the Band List.

Subject to clause 5 hereof, when a band member ceases to reside on the reserve, any spouse or dependent child of such band member shall thereby lose any right that he or she had to reside on the reserve pursuant to these rules unless he or she is also a band member.

5. Subject to clauses 2 and 3 hereof, when a band member or other person wishes to reside on the reserve he or she shall apply to the Council in such manner as the Council may determine from time to time. Any such application may be made on behalf of the applicant alone or on behalf of the applicant and all or any one or more of his or her spouse and dependent child or dependent children.

6. The Council may consider and deal with applications pursuant to paragraph 5 hereof according to such procedure and at such time or times as it shall determine in its discretion and, without detracting from the generality of the foregoing, the Council may conduct such interviews, require such evidence and may deal with any two or more of such applications separately or together as it shall determine in its discretion. Permission to reside on the reserve may be granted permanently or for a term and, in either case, may be made subject to such conditions as Council may determine to be reasonable and expedient in the circumstances.

7. For the purposes of determining whether or not an application should be granted, or whether or not an application should be granted only on conditions specified by the Council, the Council shall take into consideration the following matters:

- (a) whether that person is a band member;
- (b) whether that person is or will be employed on the reserve;
- (c) the provisions of By-Law No. 100 of the Band, as amended;
- (d) the availability of suitable land, housing and ancillary services;
- (e) the extent to which that person is prepared to commit his or her personal and economic resources to the welfare and advancement of the Band community;
